

the indiana law to rid my home and more importantly my family time of the telemarketing nightmare has been great. we actually like when the phone rings now as opposed to last year when 8 out of 10 times it was trash. please do not mess with something this good. thank you, bill kaiser